

Hudson County Sheriff Announces Roving DWI Patrols during Thanksgiving Weekend

JERSEY CITY, NJ – Hudson County Sheriff Frank X. Schillari announced today that the Hudson County Sheriff's Office will have extra roving DWI patrols during Thanksgiving Weekend.

"The extra patrols will ensure the safety of Hudson County residents and travelers by roving county roads throughout Hudson County starting Thanksgiving Eve and continuing through the weekend," said Sheriff Schillari.

Thanksgiving Eve is considered to be one of the biggest drinking nights of the year. "We want everyone to enjoy the holidays but to do so in a safe and responsible manner. I urge everyone to not put themselves or others at risk by driving impaired," added the Sheriff.

The extra roving patrols are made possible thanks to the Federal Drunk Driving Enforcement Grant.

Those who will be consuming alcohol are advised to use designated drivers or use a taxi service.
