

Update from Hudson County Sheriff Frank X. Schillari on Hit and Run at Lincoln Park in Jersey City

JERSEY CITY, NJ – Update from Hudson County Sheriff Frank X. Schillari regarding the hit and run accident at Lincoln Park in Jersey City on Sunday morning.

“Today at 3 PM, members of the Hudson County Sheriff's Office Crash Investigation Unit, with the assistance of the Jersey City Police Street Crimes Unit, located the passenger of the 2003 green GMC Envoy that fled Lincoln Park after striking and critically injuring a pedestrian on Sunday morning,” said Sheriff Schillari. “Samir M. Shaban, 20, of Lexington Avenue in Jersey City was charged with Endangering a Seriously Injured Person. He was released on a summons complaint and is scheduled to appear in Central Judicial Processing Court on Wednesday morning.

The victim remains in critical condition at the Jersey City Medical Center.”

- Hudson County Sheriff Frank X. Schillari